

Extra! Extra! Extra!

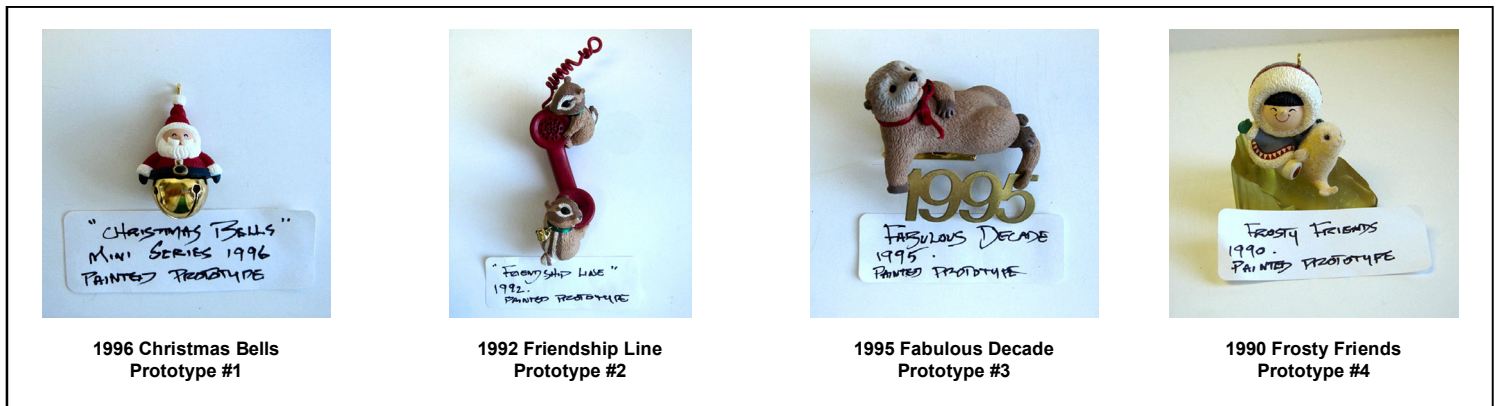

HALLMARK PROTOTYPE ORNAMENT SILENT AUCTION

ED SEALE—ARTIST

Hooked on Ornaments is excited that the very popular retired Hallmark Studio Artist, Ed Seale will be the special guest at our October 31, 2009 Hooked on Ornaments Warehouse Sale Event. Ed created some of Hallmark's most collectible ornaments, including most of the Frosty Friends series, all of the Tender Touches collection and hundreds more.

And... to add to the excitement, Ed has donated FOUR very special RARE, One-of-a-Kind Hallmark Ornament Prototypes for a Silent Auction.

We will begin the bidding NOW at $10, with bids in minimum $10 increments. The prototypes will be on display in our room at the Keepsake Ornament Club Event (Memories for the Making) next week in Kansas City. A portion of the proceeds will go to Harvester's of Kansas City, an organization that fights hunger. All prototypes will be signed by Ed and will include a signed Certificate of Authenticity.

Place your bid:

Email auction@hookedonhallmark.com and include

Item Bidding On—Your Name—Your Maximum Bid Amount

Each bidder will be assigned a bidder #.

We'll update the high bid amount with bidder # daily on our our website—www.hookedonornaments.com

Auction Ends 1 P.M.—October 31, 2009

(Internet/Email bidding will end at midnight, October 30, 2009)

This is a great opportunity to own a RARE, ONE-OF-A-KIND Hallmark Collectible and support a great charity.

Hooked on Ornaments